MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request to Speak to a Class at Marshall University

1. Mr. James Bruce, an instructor in political science at Marshall University, Huntington, West Virginia, has requested an Agency officer to address his class in Soviet and East European affairs sometime this month. A copy of his letter is attached.

2. I request permission to speak to this class on the subject of developments and trends in Eastern Europe over the next five years. I will not, of course, discuss any classified information or any matters affecting CIA or the intelligence community. It is understood that I will be identified as a CIA officer responsible for the production of intelligence on East Europe.
